

Tonilee Adamson is co-founder and Chief Operating Officer of Media 4 Women Enterprises, Inc. Tonilee brings spunk and style to a boardroom while delivering Internet marketing tools to help accelerate businesses to their potential. With a professional career in health care as an Intensive Care Unit Nurse, with an emphasis in Administration and Information Technology, Tonilee knows how to reach the heart of people. She is now inspiring and empowering women to pursue their life dreams both professionally and personally by teaching, mentoring, and supporting them throughout the process. Tonilee has authored and co-authored over 20 books and studies, is a favored public speaker, radio host and a frequent guest on television interviews. Tonilee co-hosts an Internet television program called Real Issues - Real Answers with a power packed line up of other great speakers on topics addressing everyday life challenges in the workplace and at home. She reaches her audience through practical lessons and genuine delivery. Tonilee lives in San Diego, California with her husband, Rob, and has 3 children in college and high school.